Saturday 4th October

We welcome you to Newark's Narnia – a day filled with free family fun drop-in activities inspired by Narnia and Hygge!

Join us this Autumn as we embrace the cold and wrap ourselves in cosy layers! Step through our wardrobe into our storytelling Narnia, have a go at the great feast, look out for the Rhubarb Theatre performances, and delight in many craft based making workshops!

NATIONAL CIVIL WAR CENTRE CRAFT, GAMES & STORYTELLING 10am – 4pm

- Make a mini-Newark townscape inspired by gingerbread houses.
- Autumnal games and hot chocolate.
- Art and wellbeing workshops.
- Crafting with recycled materials and a healthy eating stall.
- Storytelling around the 'campfire' with storyteller Nicky Rafferty.
- Creative art workshops with Bookbench artist Nicola Mills.

NEWARK LIBRARY RHUBARB THEATRE 10.30am, 12.30pm & 2.30pm

Join our book-bonkers buddies as they act out tales of whales, bears and manic monsters. Be amazed as they twist fantastic adventures of pathetic pirates, merry musketeers, and hairy hairdressers. Full of music, comedy and general silliness, Rhubarb Theatre's fun and fantastical festival show is, quite literally, out of this world!

NEWARK TOWN HALL MUSEUM & GALLERY THE QUEEN'S FEAST CRAFT 11am – 1pm & 1.30pm – 3.30pm

Come to the Ballroom in the Town Hall and meet the White Witch. She would like to be the Queen of Narnia and is having a feast to win over the land. Draw and colour your favourite foods, and create a lavish banquet. Look for the white lamppost and take the stone staircase on the left as you enter The Buttermarket from Market Place. Alternatively, visit us through Newark Town Hall Museum & Art Gallery and our guides will show you the way.

YMCA MYTHICAL CREATURE ART WORKSHOP 11am – 3pm. Every hour on the hour

Join us for a session, starting on the hour, and unleash your imagination! Design, draw, and paint your very own Narnian creature, a faun, centaur, ice wolf, or something entirely new and then bring it to life with an amazing backstory.

YMCA CAFÉ & PALACE THEATRE THE ENCHANTED KITCHEN OF NARNIA 11am – 3pm

Drop by either the YMCA Cafe or the Palace Theatre, to sample delicious Turkish Delight handmade by young people in Newark. Get creative by decorating your own marshmallows or take part in our Design Your Own Hot Chocolate competition!
