FESTIVAL OF CREATIVITY

Saturday 5 October

Access Models | 9am - 5pm

Explore a variety of model-making activities, learn about Warhammer gaming, and discover the excitement of radio control cars.

Air & Space Institute - ASI Tours | 10am and 11am

Fantastic tours of the ASI! Each tour lasts 45 minutes.

Book at www.newarkcreates.co.uk

National Civil War Centre - A Day of Dance | 10am - 4pm

Hop, skip and jump your way to a whole day of dance taster sessions. Have a go at country, contemporary, cheerleading, ceroc... we have more types of dance than you can shake a morris dancer's stick at! There is even a tiny tots session. All sessions are free, fun and fully accessible for all.

Newark Art Gallery | 9am - 4.30pm

Come along and colour in King Charles I, II and III. See the new collaborative exhibition 'Play' between Newark artists and the Fosseyway Writers group.

Newark Library | 9am - 4pm

Drop in to see Rhubarb Theatre's latest show and have a go at various crafts and activities including:

- Nottinghamshire Handspinners and Weavers
- Gifts From Fairies - making a Christmas card!
- Crafts and Lego - fun with the library team
- Making a Zine with Newark Book Festival Young Ambassador Truly McIntosh (1pm - 4pm)

Plus enjoy "Collection Day" our family friendly theatre show on at 10.30am, 12.30pm and 2.30pm!

It's bin day and two rambunctious refuse collectors are heroically cleaning the streets. But what's this? A dustbin that refuses rubbish. Delving into its depths, we discover that 'one man's trash is another man's treasure', as a wonderful myriad of stories and treats ensue from all that is rubbish and recycled.

Newark Market Place | 10am - 4pm

Find out more about Newark Heritage Forum and Newark Heritage Barge and look out for our play zone!

Newark School of Violin Making - Tours | 10am - 12 noon

Take a tour of the violin school. Book at www.newarkcreates.co.uk

Sunday 6 October

Inspire Buttermarket | 12 noon - 4pm

As the nights draw in, we want to light up your life in a creative and inspiring way by inviting you to:

- Make some beautiful, illuminated lanterns, headdresses and badges to take home and keep. We hope you will bring them out for the Newark Creates 'A Likely Story' evening event on Friday 1 November to help light up the Market Square!
- Enter our magical Shadow Booth and make your own shadow puppets and improvised show!
- Join in with making our illuminated, vertical city and let's see how big we can get it in just one day!

At intervals, throughout the event, you can enjoy music from the Buttermarket-based Inspire Orchestra.

Newark Art Gallery | 9am - 4.30pm

Come along and colour in King Charles I, II and III.

See the new collaborative exhibition 'Play' between Newark artists and the Fosseway Writers group.

Newark Market Place - Play Zone | 11am - 1pm

Join Circus Starlight for a two hour drop in workshop (11am - 1pm), have fun with bubbles, bring your scooters and trikes, have a go on our hopskotch and enjoy a day of free play!

Programme is correct at time of printing. Events are subject to change due to unforeseen circumstances - please follow Newark Creates on Facebook for the latest news and updates.
